

AUG -9 1922

©CIL 18133

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS #8

1. HANDLING IT TO NORMA
Motion Picture exhibitors from all the country visit California and were they on hand when they heard they were going to have a chance to meet Norma Talmadge? -- just watch!
Norma said it looked like "The Isle of Man."
2. VISITORS FROM ACROSS THE SEA
The London Follies girls arrive in Los Angeles and the first thing they do is to see why the fame of the Mack Sennett Bathing Beauties has reached even across the sea.
Billy Bevens shows 'em a little American.
He heard the girls like "cave-men" so ---
But Harry Tate showed him some Englishmen can see a joke the first time
Comedy moustaches are the same in all countries.
3. STOPPING TO POWDER HIS NOSE
George Beban has "that something" that wins friends wherever he goes and even when he's out making pictures you're sure to find some admirer there.
#Gee, wish the other kids on the block could see me talking to a real movie actor."
4. WE'LL MISS HER
Little Mae Marsh, one of the first of America's film favorites, signs a contract to star in English-made features at the largest salary ever paid an American film star abroad.
"I've always wanted to meet the Prince of Wales - he's so good-looking."
Au revier - but not goodbye.
5. OUTDOOR SPORTS
Lots of people "play at" golf -- but Richard Dix really plays it. In fact, he's Amateur Golf Champion of California.
Hands across the tee - Dix meets Hutt Martin, Open Champion of Southern California.
It's all in the way you do it.
FOFE!
6. WHO WOULD HAVE THOUGHT IT?
Wonder if our ancestors back in pre-historic jungles ever thought some of 'em would be pampered movie actors?
We'll bet Betty never thought she'd have Grace Darmond to feed her!
They haven't changed much through the ages!
And what do you s'pose Joe Martin's grand-daddy would say --
If he could see Mary MacLaren petting him?

7. Cheer up. If your best girl tells you, you're a boob don't worry look at the hit Lloyd Hamilton made being a boob.

8. A MILLION DOLLAR CAST

Screen stars are known for the way they entertain visitors. Here's a million dollar group putting on an entertainment showing how movies are made, for tourists in California.

Mary Miles Minter was mighty good to look at

-- and so was her mother.

Somebody told Bessie Love to "get the hook" -- but she couldn't find anyone to hook her

Agnes Ayres smiled -- and the world smiled with her --

Theodore Roberts supplies the young ideas for any party --

-- Wanda Hawley looked like a young idea (r) herself.

As Master of Ceremonies Bert Lytell was a scream.

Conrad Nagle said he'd take a chance and so something --

-- May McAvoy said the audience was taking the chance --

Director Paul Powell coached 'em.

Antonio Moreno had a grand (piano) seat.

The big love scene.

"Just a minute!"

"Meet My Wife."

The End.

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress